25X1 4. [] Talked with Marian Czarnecki, Chief of Staff, House Foreign Affairs Committee, who told me that under the new rules of the Democratic Caucus the following members had been named to the Subcommittee that would receive Agency briefings on covert action programs: Chairman Thomas E. Morgan (D., Pa.), and Representatives Clement J. Zablocki (D., Wisc.), Wayne L. Hays (D., Ohio), Leo J. Ryan (D., Calif.), and Helen S. Meyner (D., N. J.). The Subcommittee will also have two Republican members, who are as yet unnamed.

25X1 5. [] Received another call from Mike Crowley, INR, who is interested in our position on S. Res. 6, which would establish a Senate select committee similar to the one set up under S. Res. 21. I again promised to send Crowley a draft of our response as soon as it is prepared.

6. [] OCI, and I met 25X1A today with Paul Tsompanas, Legislative Aide to Representative Bob Wilson (R., Calif.), to discuss Ecuadorean seizure of American tuna boats. This stemmed from a call Congressman Wilson made to us on 7 February. The Congressman is in California and Mr. Tsompanas will pass along our comments to him. We left Mr. Tsompanas a copy of the Weekly Summary article on Tuna Boat Seizure which appeared 31 January.

25X1 7. [] I left with the following individuals a copy of Judge Haynesworth's decision reversing the decision of the District Court in the Marchetti case: Ed Braswell, Senate Armed Services Committee staff; Guy McConnell, Senate Appropriations Committee staff; Jack Boos, for Chairman Lucien N. Nedzi (D., Mich.), House Armed Services Special Subcommittee on Intelligence; Ralph Preston, House Appropriations Committee staff; Doug Marvin, Senate Judiciary Committee staff; and Paul Summitt, Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Criminal Laws and Procedures.

Jack Boos asked that I check into a story that appeared in the Washington Star today that CIA had used credentials and badges of the Fairfax County Police to conduct surveillance.

25X1 6. [] Received a call from Betsy Samuelson in the office of Senator Patrick J. Leahy (D., Vt.). She inquired as to the status of two letters dated 31 January and 1 February from Senator Leahy to the Director in behalf of two constituents who posed inquiries concerning themselves and CIA in view of the recent press allegations. I told her that the letters were being actively reviewed and replies would be prepared shortly.

25X1 7. [] Picked up from Al Tarabochia, Chief Investigator, ~~Senate Judiciary~~ Subcommittee on Internal Security, a draft article on the Venceremos Brigade for inclusion in their 1974 annual report, to be published soon. He asked for the Agency's review and comment. Tarabochia drew from certain materials furnished by [] CI Staff, 25X1A on the KGB ties to Cuban intelligence efforts against the Brigade which he is including in an overall staff study on the Brigade, also soon to be published. I gave the draft to [] later in the day for his review. STATOTHR

25X1A STATOTHR Duke Short, another member of the Subcommittee staff, gave me a news article that Jay Sourwine, Chief Counsel, asked that we look into.

[] Short also gave me a Subcommittee report on the State Department bombing by the Weathermen Underground and a Subcommittee report on the organization to be released Monday. The reports were forwarded to [] Office of Security, for possible physical security interest.

25X1 8. [] Bill Hogan, Counsel, House Armed Services Committee, called to review for sanitization and clear for publication with the transcripts of Watergate hearings two memoranda: 10 July 1972 handwritten memorandum by [] 25X1A and a 1 March 1973 memorandum by [] commenting on a 25X1A Time Magazine article on the Mullen Company and Watergate.

11 9. [] OSI, called to advise us that the State Department in providing Senator Charles H. Percy

He asked what procedures to follow in the future on requests involving the Congress. I suggested that he coordinate with OLC soonest since we are the CIA focal point on such matters.

Victoria Expects Visa To Visit Ailing Father

STORRS, Conn., Jan. 30 (AP)—Victoria Fyodorova, the 28-year-old Soviet actress born of an international love affair, told an American interpreter today that she will get a visa to visit her American father within three months.

She was quoted as saying that in a telephone interview from Moscow translated by Dr. Irene Kirk of the University of Connecticut.

Dr. Kirk, an associate professor of Russian and comparative literature, found the actress' father in 1963 after a four-year search and has carried letters and photographs back and forth to Moscow since then.

Victoria was conceived in 1945 during a love affair between Soviet actress Zova Fyodorova and a Navy officer stationed in Moscow, Jackson R. Tate. Tate, 77, is a retired admiral living in Orange Park, Fla.

As a result of the affair, Mrs. Fyodorova was sent to prison by Soviet authorities.

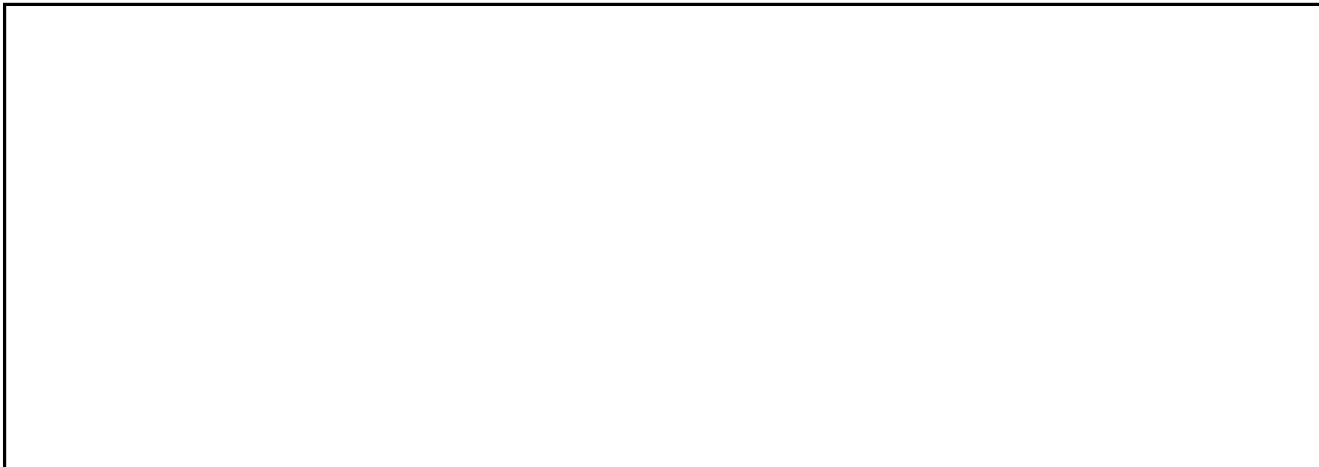

The daughter applied for a visa three months ago but until the recent publicity she was given little hope, Dr. Kirk said.

7. [redacted] DOD, called for assistance 25X1A in locating a statement by former Director Schlesinger praising the Agency and with the help of Mr. Walsh, DDI, identified the next to the last paragraph of Schlesinger's farewell address, in memo form, of 2 July 1973, "There is more talent in this Agency than in any comparable group within the Federal Government. Harnessed together and properly exploited, this talent can and, I am confident, will make an indispensable contribution to the future of this nation."

25X1 8. [redacted] Clark McFadden, General Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee, called and referring to an item in the NID, requested a briefing for himself and Jim Smith, Subcommittee on Military Construction Authorization, Senate Armed Services Committee, on the Indian Ocean and related matters in connection with the President's certification on the funding of Diego Garcia. Because of the unavailability of Smith, the briefing will have to be either tomorrow or next Friday.
25X1A I advised [redacted] OCI, to line up the appropriate individuals, preferably for next Friday.
